CARE CONVERSATIONS

FORWARD
FROM
DR TINA LAMONT // Director TEC

Dear Friend,

It is an understatement to remind each other that at times we lead very busy lives. We know that if we can come by a word that speaks to our hearts, it will be good for our souls, even amid the sometimes hectic pace of school life.

We hope that this series of Care Conversations can speak to all of us, because we are leaning on one of the most read Christian pastoral writers – A.W. Tozer. The comments in this series from Stephen are based on Culture: Living as Citizens of Heaven on Earth. Collected insights from A.W. Tozer (Moody Publishers, 2016).

May you be refreshed as you faithfully go about your good work this week.

Sincerely,

Dr Tina Lamont

CULTURE:

LIVING AS CITIZENS OF HEAVEN ON EARTH

REFLECTION BY STEPHEN J FYSON PHD
PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT

Number 4:

Being Maturely Unadjusted

This week, we will let A.W. Tozer explain it in his own words:

- The world seems to possess a real genius for being wrong, even the educated world... Society, being fluid, usually moves like the wind, going all out in one direction until the novelty wears off or there is a war or a depression. Then the breeze sets another way and everyone is supposed to go along with it without asking too many questions... (p. 75)
- Right now... Our highest ambition should be [according to the progressive educators] to become integrated to the mass, to lose our moral individuality to the whole... Anyone who resists is a killjoy and a spoilsport, to say nothing of being old-fashioned and dogmatic. (p.76)
- We who call ourselves Christians are supposed to be a people apart...

We have thrown in our lot with that One who while He lived on earth was the most unadjusted of the sons of men... Die for it He would, but surrender to it He would not. (p.77)

And so, let us keep praying, "Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven." (Matthew 6:10)

Grace and peace,

Stephen J Fyson PhD
