

CARE CONVERSATIONS

FORWARD
FROM
DR TINA LAMONT // Director TEC

Dear Friend,

We are pleased to continue to bring you our Care Conversations. In the first series, Dr Stephen Fyson brought us some reflections on Mere Christian Education, based on CS Lewis' Mere Christianity. In this next set, Stephen brings us some encouragement from the Gospel according to Matthew – often called the Teachers' Gospel.

We hope that this service from The Excellence Centre continues to support you in this wonderful ministry of Christian Education. Please remember to contact us with any ideas about how we may be able to assist you more.

Series 2:

THE TEACHERS' GOSPEL...

REFLECTION BY
STEPHEN J FYSON PHD
PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT

Number 1:

True Happiness In Our World?

There is much talk about happiness in our world. There are movies and songs about happiness gained and happiness lost (have you been to see the recent movie Me Before You?). There are countless articles written in magazines extolling certain behaviours that will make you happy. All we have to do is to follow 'these easy 5, or 10, or however many steps.

There are serious psychological theories and texts written on the matter of happiness – and of course, the simplified pop versions also abound.

Yet Jesus, in the Sermon on the Mount (see Matthew 5) taught that we are blessed when certain states of the heart are expressed. This blessing is so much more than happiness. This blessedness is receiving a gift from our Lord God that brings with it so much more than we can even imagine. Blessedness is an outworking of grace, through acts of faith.

This flies in the face of so many self-focussed theories that thrive in our Western educational syllabi: self-esteem, self-potential and self-fulfilment, all surrounded by a world of / gadgets.

How will we in our schools invite our young people to grow poor, meek, righteousness-seeking, merciful, pure and peaceful hearts, in the face of all this whiz-filled instantaneous and self-tantalizing activity? Let's not give up, let's keep sharing our ideas and experience, and let's keep inviting God to guide us by His Word and His Holy Spirit. Then we will see the gift of blessedness more in and around our school communities, by His Grace.

Grace and peace,

Stephen J Fyson PhD
