CARE CONVERSATIONS

FORWARD FROM

DR TINA LAMONT // Director TEC

Dear Friend,

We hope this current series of Care Conversations has challenged you as much as it has me!! Speaking directly to us in the busyness of our sometimes hectic school lives bringing fresh revelation through the wise words of A.W. Tozer - Christian pastoral writer. Stephen's comments on Tozer's writings each week have been themed 'Culture: Living as Citizens of Heaven on Earth'. Collected insights from A.W. Tozer (Moody Publishers, 2016).

I hope you are refreshed as you faithfully go about your good work this week.

Sincerely,

“In our eagerness to make converts I am afraid we have lately been guilty of using the technique of modern salesmanship, which is of course to present only the desirable qualities in a product and ignore the rest” wrote A.W. Tozer (p.144).

I think that sometimes I have been similarly guilty, in not speaking as openly and fully as I might about what it means to come to a Christian school. Yet, as experience has since taught me, most people come to our Christian schools because they are looking for something deeper and more meaningful (in a spiritually humanizing way) for their children.

As A.W. Tozer also confirmed: “All this is to say that Christ is honest. We can trust Him. He knows that He will never be popular among the sons of Adam and He knows that His followers need not expect to be.” And as Peter reminded us, let us always be prepared to give a reason for the hope that is within us, but with gentleness and respect. (1 Peter 3:15)

Grace and peace,

Stephen J Tyson PhD
