

Teaching for Discipleship

Based on the book

"Teaching Redemptively - Bringing God's Grace and Truth into the Classroom"

by Donovan L Graham

Inspire

Grow

Transform

Principals
Teachers
Leaders
Support Staff

Learning Overview

The Purpose of Education

Building something Biblical: A framework

The Nature of the Learner

The purpose of education

Secular and Christian distortions of purpose

Beliefs About the Learner

The image of God - marred and restored

Beliefs About the Teacher

Our calling as story-tellers

Beliefs About the Learning Process and Content

Learning design and engagement

Participants in truth

Redemptive Teaching at Work

Curriculum design, nurturing learners & disciple making

Living the vision

Teaching for Discipleship

Learning Design

- 20 sessions customised for your school context
- Highly engaging program of learning
- Community learning model - all staff, all together
- Led by the Principal - the spiritual & instructional leader
- Comprehensive curriculum resources
- One day consultancy included to support implementation
- Ongoing support with TEC provided

Testimonies

“...time and space for deep conversations around spiritual matters with colleagues ...”

“...Thank you for the final installment of what has been one of my favourite PDs ... it has done wonders for my team ...”
Dave Pauling
Principal
Richmond View NZ

Partnering with you for Professional Learning

Transforming the thinking of Christian Education

www.theexcellencecentre.org

Partner with Us

TEC offers a range of customised partnership services including professional learning tailored to your school – meeting your needs, and with your people. The unique context and distinctives of Christian Education affirm the need for an intentional approach.

NESA Endorsed PD

TEC is an endorsed provider of professional learning with the NSW Education Standards Authority at the level of Proficient Teacher. Teaching for Discipleship is accredited for twenty-one hours of registered NESA professional development.

Please contact us at info@theexcellencecentre.org

